

Middle Idioms Worksheet

In My Shoes
Activities

Idioms are sentences where the words don't mean what they say.

Can you match each idiom with its real meaning?

- | | |
|---|--|
| Curiosity killed the cat <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> He's in trouble |
| It's raining cats and dogs <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> Leave me alone |
| He's in the dog house <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> I have a sore throat |
| There's a frog in my throat <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> You are pretending to be hurt |
| Don't bug me <input type="radio"/> | <input checked="" type="radio"/> You might get hurt if you are too curious |
| Do you have ants in your pants? <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> Wait a minute |
| Hold your horses <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> Why are you wriggling around? |
| Have you got butterflies in your stomach? <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> Can't you talk? |
| Those are crocodile tears <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> It's raining heavily |
| Cat got your tongue? <input type="radio"/> | <input type="radio"/> Do you feel nervous? |

